The New South Wales Druze Youth Committee is proud to host the 20th Annual Big Druze Weekend (BDW) in 2026!

This survival guide has everything you need to know to prepare for the weekend, which kicks off on Friday, 23rd January and wraps up on Monday, 26th January.

We can't wait to welcome you to beautiful Sydney and help you make the most of this special milestone weekend.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Your attendance at BDW affirms your commitment to the following code of conduct:

I will respect myself, my surroundings and my peers at all times.

I will behave within the general and legal requirements of the country I live in, the state I am visiting/residing in and the venues I am attending.

I will ensure that over the course of the weekend my behaviour does not affect the safety, comfort and/or enjoyment of myself or others.

The New South Wales Druze Youth Committee will have no choice but to expel delegates in breach of the code of conduct at any time during the course of the weekend, without compensation.

COMMS

This BDW, we will continue to utilise WhatsApp's Communities feature to share important announcements, including event updates and bus reminders.

Why are we using WhatsApp Communities?

- One-way communication from us to you via the announcements feature
- Your number won't be seen by others, maintaining your privacy

What do we need from you?

- Please ensure that you or somebody else in your accommodation has downloaded WhatsApp and created a profile.
- If applicable, accept the invitation to join the BDW2026 Community.

ACCOM

If you've booked accommodation through the BDW website, you'll be staying at Meriton Suites Bondi Junction on 97 Grafton St, Bondi Junction.

Hotel check in is after 2:00pm on Friday 23rd

Guests arriving before check-in time may store their luggage at Meriton Suites until their room is ready.

For our hotel delegates, transport will be provided to and from all events. You will receive WhatsApp messages notifying you of pick-up and drop-off times.

Hotel check out is by 10:00am on Monday 26th

Please note if you have booked your own accommodation, the ADYC will not be liable for any costs incurred whilst at your accommodation of choice.

AIRPORT TRANSFERS

For our interstate guests arriving via Sydney Airport, transport will be provided from the airport to Meriton Suites in Bondi Junction.

Members of the BDW2026 Committee will be waiting for you near the luggage carousels to escort you to the buses.

Whilst every effort was made to ensure all our delegates have transport to the hotel, some delegates will need to organise their own transport as they fall outside of our bus schedule window. These delegates will be contacted and reimbursed.

Anticipated Airport Bus Schedule Friday 23rd January

Bus 1	Bus 2	Bus 3	Bus 4	Bus 5
7:45am	9:30am	10:15am	11:00am	12:30pm

At the close of the weekend, guests who are flying out of Sydney on Monday 26th will be transported to the airport from our Yallah Bye event.

In the morning, you will need to check out of your accommodation and load your luggage onto the bus to Sydney Park Pavilion, the location of our final event.

It is imperative that you load your luggage onto the correct bus in the morning as this will be the bus transporting you to the airport. Further guidance is provided below, and appropriate direction will be provided on the day from the BDW2026 Committee.

Anticipated Airport Bus Schedule

Monday 26th January

Bus 1

2:30pm

For those travelling between 4pm and 6:45pm

Bus 2

3pm

For those travelling
from 6pm onwards

If you are departing before 4pm, you will need to organise your own transport to the airport. You will be contacted and reimbursed.

Any other guests not travelling to the airport after the final BDW2026 event will need to organise their own transport from the venue, at their own cost.

FREE TIME

Byblos Lebanese Cuisine

212 Bondi Road, Bondi NSW 2026

Byblos Lebanese Cuisine is a must-visit while you're in Sydney, offering a vibrant taste of Lebanon right by the water. Proudly owned by one of our own from the Druze community, the restaurant is known for its generous share plates, fresh mezze, and flavour-packed grilled dishes, it's the perfect spot to enjoy classic Middle Eastern cuisine in a lively atmosphere. From creamy hummus and crispy falafel to tender meats and fragrant spices, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

BDW perk: Enjoy 10% off your bill when you mention BDW2026.

Saturday 24th January

If Markets are more your thing, Saturday is your day.

Drop your bags off and head down to Bondi Farmers' Market for lush local produce stalls, freshly fried fritters and brunchy delights a' plenty.

Once your bellies are full, jump across to The Rocks Market to discover unique art, beats and of course more eats. Take a walk, meet traders, watch demonstrations and soak in the vibe before strolling over to Dawes Point Park. Lay back, relax and take in the serene water views under the shade of the iconic Harbour Bridge.

Hungry for more? You'll want to save maximum belly space for Carriageworks' Farmers Market. Snack your way across this Sydney institution or grab a kombucha on tap and enjoy some of the best dog-watching in the city!

If you've got any more gas in tank, or time up your sleeve, finish your adventures at Glebe Markets, where you'll find massive variety of vintage treasures.

Sunday 25th January

Enjoy a stroll through the Royal Botanical Gardens. Wander your way into the heart of the Garden's and marvel home to one of the largest green walls in the southern hemisphere at The Calyx.

Ready for an art crawl? Well, you're in luck and enticingly close to three of the four leading Sydney cultural institutions behind The National, a biennial of contemporary Australian art. Make your way through the diverse and exciting exhibitions at The Museum of Contemporary Art Australia, The Art Gallery of NSW and Carriageworks. Entry is free across all venues.

Monday 26th January

Spend some time exploring The Grounds of Alexandria, one of Sydney's most iconic destinations. Visit one of the on-site eateries and wander through the beautifully styled grounds, known for their seasonal installations, lush spaces, and vibrant atmosphere. It's the perfect spot to enjoy great food, take photos, and soak up a uniquely Sydney experience.

Continue the immersive experience and make a short pit stop at Spice Alley and meander through the landscape of Asian cuisine from Singapore, Malaysia, Japan, Vietnam and China. We recommend the Roti cani from Alex Lee Kitchen.

Take immersion to the next level with DARKFIELD, a collection of multi-sensory audio experiences in complete darkness. The total loss of vision causes other senses to heighten, fixating on to every movement and sound. Definitely one for the more daring among us!

Plan your trip

To calculate the best way to travel from A to B using Sydney Transport, you may:

- Download Opal Travel for free on your phones
 - Visit www.transportnsw.info
- Speak to a BDW2026 crew member or fellow Sydney sider

Ticketing

There are different ways to pay for your travel on public transport in NSW

You can enjoy the convenience of travelling with your credit or debit card by simply tapping on and off with your physical card or digital wallet.

You can also load travel money on an Opal card that allows you to travel on all forms of public transport in Sydney. There is no charge for an Opal card, however a minimum top up value of $20 when using top up machines.

You can also purchase Opal single tickets; however, prices are more expensive than using an Opal card and some stations, stops and wharves do not sell them.
